Dear Mr. Director:

The Gridiron Club will hold its 1980 Spring Dinner on Saturday, March 15, at the Capital Hilton Hotel in Washington. There will be a 6 p.m. reception followed by the dinner bell at 7 p.m.

I am writing now to alert you that you will receive a formal invitation later from a Club member asking you to attend as his or her guest. I hope you will reserve this date on your calendar.

The evening will follow the traditional format with satirical musical and political skits built around a Republican and Democratic speaker. We hope, of course, that the President and Mrs. Carter will attend.

Given the political climate, we are planning a lively and entertaining evening, which would be greatly enhanced by your presence. I hope you can be with us.

Sincerely,

Grant Dillman, President
The Gridiron Club
